Where Do the Candidates Stand on Life?

Cory Gardner

John Hickenlooper

Abortion on Demand

There have been 61 million abortions since the 1973 Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision legalized abortion on demand.

Cory Gardner is pro-life. He opposes abortion on demand, and supports protection for unborn children.

Cory Gardner voted for a bill that would prohibit abortions after 20 weeks, when the unborn child can feel pain.

John Hickenlooper supports a policy of abortion on demand, which allows abortion for any reason. John Hickenlooper called for our next president to "act to enshrine Roe v. Wade into law."

John Hickenlooper opposes legislation to protect unborn children from late abortions.

Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Prohibiting taxpayer funding of abortion saves lives.

Cory Gardner opposes using our tax dollars for abortion.

John Hickenlooper supports using our tax dollars for abortion.

Judicial Nominations to the US Supreme Court

The fundamental documents of American democracy and freedom, the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, have given us essential principles to be respected by the courts such as the "unalienable" right to life.

The next president may have the opportunity to appoint one to three justices to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Cory Gardner voted to confirm U.S. Supreme Court Justices Neil Gorsuch and Brett Kavanaugh, who will interpret the Constitution according to its text.

John Hickenlooper opposed confirmation of Justice Brett Kavanaugh to the U.S. Supreme Court.
