A BILL

To protect, consistent with Roe v. Wade, a woman's freedom to choose to bear a child or terminate a pregnancy, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Freedom of Choice 3 Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The United States was founded on core 7 principles, such as liberty, personal privacy, and 8 equality, which ensure that individuals are free to 9 make their most intimate decisions without govern-10 mental interference and discrimination.

11 (2) One of the most private and difficult deci-12 sions an individual makes is whether to begin, pre-13 vent, continue, or terminate a pregnancy. Those re-14 productive health decisions are best made by women, 15 in consultation with their loved ones and health care 16 providers.

17 (3) In 1965, in Griswold v. Connecticut (381
18 U.S. 479), and in 1973, in Roe v. Wade (410 U.S.
19 113) and Doe v. Bolton (410 U.S. 179), the Su-
20 preme Court recognized that the right to privacy
21 protected by the Constitution encompasses the right 22 of every woman to weigh the personal, moral, and 23 religious considerations involved in deciding whether 24 to begin, prevent, continue, or terminate a preg-25 nancy.

1 (4) The Roe v. Wade decision carefully balances 2 the rights of women to make important reproductive 3 decisions with the State's interest in potential life.
4 Under Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, the right to 5 privacy protects a woman's decision to choose to ter-6 minate her pregnancy prior to fetal viability, with 7 the State permitted to ban abortion after fetal via-8 bility except when necessary to protect a woman's 9 life or health.

10 (5) These decisions have protected the health 11 and lives of women in the United States. Prior to 12 the Roe v. Wade decision in 1973, an estimated 13 1,200,000 women each year were forced to resort to 14 illegal abortions, despite the risk of unsanitary con-
15 ditions, incompetent treatment, infection, hemor-
16 rhage, disfiguration, and death. Before Roe, it is es-17 timated that thousands of women died annually in 18 the United States as a result of illegal abortions.

19 (6) In countries in which abortion remains ille-20 gal, the risk of maternal mortality is high. According 21 to the World Health Organization, of the approxi-
22 mately 600,000 pregnancy-related deaths occurring 23 annually around the world, 80,000 are associated 24 with unsafe abortions.

1 (7) The Roe v. Wade decision also expanded the 2 opportunities for women to participate equally in so-3 ciety. In 1992, in Planned Parenthood v. Casey (505 4 U.S. 833), the Supreme Court observed that, “[t]he 5 ability of women to participate equally in the eco-6 nomic and social life of the Nation has been facili-7 tated by their ability to control their reproductive 8 lives.”.

9 (8) Even though the Roe v. Wade decision has 10 stood for more than 30 years, there are increasing 11 threats to reproductive health and freedom emerging 12 from all branches and levels of government. In 2006, 13 South Dakota became the first State in more than 14 15 years to enact a ban on abortion in nearly all cir-
15 cumstances. Supporters of this ban have admitted it 16 is an attempt to directly challenge Roe in the courts.
17 Other States are considering similar bans.

18 (9) Further threatening Roe, the Supreme 19 Court recently upheld the first-ever Federal ban on 20 abortion, which has no exception to protect a wom-
21 an’s health. The majority decision in Gonzales v.
22 Carhart and Gonzales v. Planned Parenthood Fed-
23 eration of America permits the government to inter-24 fere with a woman’s right to choose to terminate a 25 pregnancy and effectively overturns a core tenet of 1 Roe v. Wade by abandoning more than 30 years of 2 protection for women’s health. Dissenting in that 3 case, Justice Ginsburg called the majority’s opinion 4 “alarming,” and stated that, “[f]or the first time

5 since Roe, the Court blesses a prohibition with no 6 exception safeguarding a woman’s health.” Further, 7 she said, the Federal ban “and the Court’s defense 8 of it cannot be understood as anything other than 9 an effort to chip away at a right declared again and 10 again by this Court.”.

11 (10) Legal and practical barriers to the full 12 range of reproductive services endanger women’s 13 health and lives. Incremental restrictions on the 14 right to choose imposed by Congress and State legis-15 latures have made access to abortion care extremely 16 difficult, if not impossible, for many women across 17 the country. Currently, 87 percent of the counties in 18 the United States have no abortion provider.

19 (11) While abortion should remain safe and 20 legal, women should also have more meaningful ac-
21 cess to family planning services that prevent unin-22 tended pregnancies, thereby reducing the need for 23 abortion.

24 (12) To guarantee the protections of Roe v.
25 Wade, Federal legislation is necessary.

1 (13) Although Congress may not create con-
2 stitutional rights without amending the Constitution,
3 Congress may, where authorized by its enumerated
4 powers and not prohibited by the Constitution, enact 5 legislation to create and secure statutory rights in 6 areas of legitimate national concern.

7 (14) Congress has the affirmative power under 8 section 8 of article I of the Constitution and section 9 5 of the 14th amendment to the Constitution to 10 enact legislation to facilitate interstate commerce
11 and to prevent State interference with interstate 12 commerce, liberty, or equal protection of the laws.

13 (15) Federal protection of a woman's right to 14 choose to prevent or terminate a pregnancy falls 15 within this affirmative power of Congress, in part, 16 because—

17 (A) many women cross State lines to ob-18 tain abortions and many more would be forced 19 to do so absent a constitutional right or Federal 20 protection;

21 (B) reproductive health clinics are com-
22 mercial actors that regularly purchase medicine, 23 medical equipment, and other necessary sup-24 plies from out-of-State suppliers; and

1 (C) reproductive health clinics employ doc-
2 tors, nurses, and other personnel who travel
3 across State lines in order to provide reproduc-4 tive health services to patients.

5 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

6 In this Act:

7 (1) GOVERNMENT.—The term “government”
8 includes a branch, department, agency, instrumen-

14 wealth of Puerto Rico, and each territory or posses-15 sion of the United States.

16 (3) VIABILITY.—The term “viability” means 17 that stage of pregnancy when, in the best medical 18 judgment of the attending physician based on the 19 particular medical facts of the case before the physi-
20 cian, there is a reasonable likelihood of the sustained 21 survival of the fetus outside of the woman.

22 SEC. 4. INTERFERENCE WITH REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH
23 PROHIBITED.

24 (a) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 25 United States that every woman has the fundamental

3 fetal viability when necessary to protect the life or health 4 of the woman.

5 (b) PROHIBITION OF INTERFERENCE.—A govern-
6 ment may not—

7 (1) deny or interfere with a woman’s right to 8 choose—

9 (A) to bear a child;

10 (B) to terminate a pregnancy prior to via-11 bility; or

12 (C) to terminate a pregnancy after viability 13 where termination is necessary to protect the 14 life or health of the woman; or 15 (2) discriminate against the exercise of the 16 rights set forth in paragraph (1) in the regulation 17 or provision of benefits, facilities, services, or infor-18 mation.

19 (c) CIVIL ACTION.—An individual aggrieved by a vio-20 lation of this section may obtain appropriate relief (includ-21 ing relief against a government) in a civil action.

22 SEC. 5. SEVERABILITY.

23 If any provision of this Act, or the application of such 24 provision to any person or circumstance, is held to be un-25 constitutional, the remainder of this Act, or the applica-

1 tion of such provision to persons or circumstances other 2 than those as to which the provision is held to be unconsti-3 tutional, shall not be affected thereby.

4 SEC. 6. RETROACTIVE EFFECT.

5 This Act applies to every Federal, State, and local 6 statute, ordinance, regulation, administrative order, deci-7 sion, policy, practice, or other action enacted, adopted, or 8 implemented before, on, or after the date of enactment 9 of this Act.
