A BILL

To protect, consistent with Roe v. Wade, a woman's freedom to choose to bear a child or terminate a pregnancy, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Freedom of Choice
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The United States was founded on core 2 principles, such as liberty, personal privacy, and 3 equality, which ensure that individuals are free to 4 make their most intimate decisions without govern-
5 mental interference and discrimination.

6 (2) One of the most private and difficult deci-
7 sions an individual makes is whether to begin, pre-
8 vent, continue, or terminate a pregnancy. Those re-9 productive health decisions are best made by women,
10 in consultation with their loved ones and health care
11 providers.

12 (3) In 1965, in Griswold v. Connecticut (381
13 U.S. 479), and in 1973, in Roe v. Wade (410 U.S.
14 113) and Doe v. Bolton (410 U.S. 179), the Su-
15 preme Court recognized that the right to privacy
16 protected by the Constitution encompasses the right 17 of every woman to weigh the personal, moral, and 18 religious considerations involved in deciding whether 19 to begin, prevent, continue, or terminate a preg-
20 nancy.

21 (4) The Roe v. Wade decision carefully balances 22 the rights of women to make important reproductive 23 decisions with the State's interest in potential life.
24 Under Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, the right to 25 privacy protects a woman's decision to choose to ter-

1 minate her pregnancy prior to fetal viability, with 2 the State permitted to ban abortion after fetal via-3 bility except when necessary to protect a woman’s 4 life or health.

5 (5) These decisions have protected the health
6 and lives of women in the United States. Prior to 7 the Roe v. Wade decision in 1973, an estimated 8 1,200,000 women each year were forced to resort to 9 illegal abortions, despite the risk of unsanitary con-
10 ditions, incompetent treatment, infection, hemor-
11 rhage, disfiguration, and death. Before Roe, it is es-12 timated that thousands of women died annually in 13 the United States as a result of illegal abortions.

14 (6) In countries in which abortion remains ille-15 gal, the risk of maternal mortality is high. According 16 to the World Health Organization, of the approxi-
17 mately 600,000 pregnancy-related deaths occurring 18 annually around the world, 80,000 are associated 19 with unsafe abortions.

20 (7) The Roe v. Wade decision also expanded the 21 opportunities for women to participate equally in so-22 ciety. In 1992, in Planned Parenthood v. Casey (505 23 U.S. 833), the Supreme Court observed that, “[t]he 24 ability of women to participate equally in the eco-
25 nomic and social life of the Nation has been facili-

1 tated by their ability to control their reproductive 2 lives.”.

3 (8) Even though the Roe v. Wade decision has 4 stood for more than 30 years, there are increasing 5 threats to reproductive health and freedom emerging 6 from all branches and levels of government. In 2006, 7 South Dakota became the first State in more than 8 15 years to enact a ban on abortion in nearly all cir-
9 cumstances. Supporters of this ban have admitted it
10 is an attempt to directly challenge Roe in the courts.
11 Other States are considering similar bans.

12 (9) Legal and practical barriers to the full 13 range of reproductive services endanger women’s 14 health and lives. Incremental restrictions on the 15 right to choose imposed by Congress and State legis-16 latures have made access to abortion care extremely 17 difficult, if not impossible, for many women across 18 the country. Currently, 87 percent of the counties in 19 the United States have no abortion provider.

20 (10) While abortion should remain safe and 21 legal, women should also have more meaningful ac-
22 cess to family planning services that prevent unin-23 tended pregnancies, thereby reducing the need for 24 abortion.

1 (11) To guarantee the protections of Roe v.
2 Wade, Federal legislation is necessary.

3 (12) Although Congress may not create con-
4 stitutional rights without amending the Constitution,
5 Congress may, where authorized by its enumerated
6 powers and not prohibited by the Constitution, enact 7 legislation to create and secure statutory rights in 8 areas of legitimate national concern.

9 (13) Congress has the affirmative power under 10 section 8 of article I of the Constitution and section 11 5 of the 14th amendment to the Constitution to 12 enact legislation to facilitate interstate commerce
13 and to prevent State interference with interstate 14 commerce, liberty, or equal protection of the laws.

15 (14) Federal protection of a woman's right to 16 choose to prevent or terminate a pregnancy falls
17 within this affirmative power of Congress, in part, 18 because—

19 (A) many women cross State lines to ob-20 tain abortions and many more would be forced 21 to do so absent a constitutional right or Federal 22 protection;

23 (B) reproductive health clinics are com-
24 mercial actors that regularly purchase medicine,

1 medical equipment, and other necessary sup-
2 plies from out-of-State suppliers; and

3 (C) reproductive health clinics employ doc-
4 tors, nurses, and other personnel who travel
5 across State lines in order to provide reproduc-
6 tive health services to patients.

7 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

8 In this Act:

9 (1) GOVERNMENT.—The term “government”

18 (3) VIABILITY.—The term “viability” means 19 that stage of pregnancy when, in the best medical 20 judgment of the attending physician based on the 21 particular medical facts of the case before the physi-

23 survival of the fetus outside of the woman.

1 SEC. 4. INTERFERENCE WITH REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH
2 PROHIBITED.

3 (a) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 7 fetal viability when necessary to protect the life or health 8 of the woman.

9 (b) PROHIBITION OF INTERFERENCE.—A govern-
10 ment may not—

11 (1) deny or interfere with a woman's right to 12 choose—

13 (A) to bear a child;

14 (B) to terminate a pregnancy prior to via-15 bility; or

16 (C) to terminate a pregnancy after viability 17 where termination is necessary to protect the 18 life or health of the woman; or

19 (2) discriminate against the exercise of the 20 rights set forth in paragraph (1) in the regulation
21 or provision of benefits, facilities, services, or infor-
22 mation.

23 (c) CIVIL ACTION.—An individual aggrieved by a vio-
24 lation of this section may obtain appropriate relief (includ-25 ing relief against a government) in a civil action.

1 SEC. 5. SEVERABILITY.

2 If any provision of this Act, or the application of such 3 provision to any person or circumstance, is held to be un-
4 constitutional, the remainder of this Act, or the applica-
5 tion of such provision to persons or circumstances other 6 than those as to which the provision is held to be unconsti-
7 tutional, shall not be affected thereby.

8 SEC. 6. RETROACTIVE EFFECT.

9 This Act applies to every Federal, State, and local 10 statute, ordinance, regulation, administrative order, deci-11 sion, policy, practice, or other action enacted, adopted, or 12 implemented before, on, or after the date of enactment
13 of this Act.
