Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act

The Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act would protect unborn children by prohibiting abortion at 20 weeks, a point by which the unborn child is capable of experiencing great pain when being killed by dismemberment or other late abortion methods.

Daniel Gade supports the bill that would prohibit abortions after 20 weeks when the unborn child can feel pain.

Mark Warner voted against legislation that would prohibit abortions after 20 weeks when the unborn child can feel pain.

Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act would require that a baby born alive during an abortion be afforded the same degree of care that would apply to any other baby delivered at the same gestational age.

Daniel Gade supports the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Mark Warner voted against the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Prohibiting taxpayer funding of abortion saves lives.

Judicial Nominations to the US Supreme Court

The fundamental documents of American democracy and freedom, the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, have given us essential principles to be respected by the courts such as the "unalienable" right to life.

The next president may have the opportunity to appoint one to three justices to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Daniel Gade supports confirmation to the U.S. Supreme Court of well-qualified persons, such as Neil Gorsuch and Brett Kavanaugh, who voted this year to uphold Louisiana's pro-life law.

Mark Warner voted against confirmation of Justices Neil Gorsuch and Brett Kavanaugh to the U.S. Supreme Court.
